Altmetric (No. 40)
Alternative Metrics, in addition to impact factor or h-index, is getting more and more important. We show you how to use the tools of market leader Altmetric – especially if you are a member of the D-CHAB.
Presenter: Dr. Joachim Schnabl

Tuesday, 30.6.2016
Predatory Publishers (No. 41)
Learn everything about predatory publishers who are in the first instance looking for your money and not for your paper – without providing the services you would expect from a decent publisher.
Presenter: Dr. Oliver Renn

Wednesday, 1.7.2015
Quertle is now Quetzal (No. 42)
If you would like to search PubMed in a more intelligent way you have to use the successor of Quertle, namely Quetzal. The basic version is still free, the professional versions come with full text searching capabilities. Text Mining light, so to speak.
Presenter: Dr. Oliver Renn

Thursday, 2.7.2015
Kudos (No. 43)
Do you want to spread out words about your paper not only through the journal in which you have published? Kudos helps researchers explain, enrich and share their publications for greater research impact – especially for the D-CHAB members.
Presenter: Dr. Joachim Schnabl

Tuesday, 7.7.2015
News from Sci-Finder: PatentPak (No. 44)
PatentPak is an add-on workflow tool recently launched within SciFinder to enhance access to and analysis of full text patent documents. At present ETH Zurich does not plan to add PatentPak to the existing SciFinder subscription. However, registered SciFinder users are entitled to use five free samples of PatentPak content.
Presenter: Dr. Jozica Dolenc
