

Coffee Lectures:

The first nine

Di, Mi, Do, 13.00 pm, HCI G2

1

Tuesday, 3. December

Stay tuned with topic alerts (No. 1)

By setting up alerts in the database Scopus you can stay informed on the latest developments in your research area.

Presenter: Dr. Oliver Renn

2

Wednesday, 4. December

Full text search in Google Books (No. 2)

You do not have time to read books to find out if there is a particular topic covered in the text or not?

3

Thursday, 5. December

What's your h-index? (No. 3)

You would like to know how big your impact factor is, how large your h-index is – or those of your peers?

Presenter: Dr. Oliver Renn

Each Coffee Lecture
10 Minutes only –
13:00 to 13:10 Uhr

4

Tuesday, 10. December

Stay up-to-date with journal eTocs and, yes, also Google Alert (No. 4)

Almost every research area has its core journals which contents you should know, preferably by setting up e-mail alerts to receive information on new issues.

5

Wednesday, 11. December

Downloading PDFs of articles with reasonable naming (No. 5)

You are downloading articles from journals and have to deal with numerous PDFs with cryptic names on your desktop? There is a solution.

6

Thursday, 12. December

Get to know KnowItAll: A database with over 1.4 million spectra (No. 6)

Are you searching for the IR spectrum of your compound? Would you like to identify your <sup>1</sup>H NMR spectrum using chemical shifts? Do you think your spectrum is a composite of multiple components?

Presenter: Dr. Jozica Dolenc

7

Tuesday, 17. December

Infotherm: A thermophysical property database for mixtures and pure compounds (No. 7)

Do you have to make a proposal for the design of an energy efficient chemical plant? Are you struggling with obtaining data on transport properties for a solvent mixture? Do you need a reliable vapor pressure estimate for your substance in a specific temperature range?

8

Wednesday, 18. December

Mendeley: A Software for managing citations and PDF files. A real-life example. (No. 8)

Mendeley is an alternative to the well-known EndNote citation management system.

Presenter: Leo Betschart, Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

9

Thursday, 19. December

Google Trends (No. 9)

You would like to know what others are interested in, what is a trend or could be one?

Presenter: Dr. Oliver Renn
